

Community In Bloom presents....

How do I love thee?
Let me plant the ways...

Looking to impress your beloved this coming
Valentine's Day?

Instead of spending a fortune on perishable roses, do check out this refreshing talk-cum-demo where you will be acquainted with the magical world of Hoyas and its many fragrant-flowered wonders, and get the chance to wear your heart on a leaf - literally!

Illustrate your love on the heart-shaped leaves of Hoya kerrii (Sweetheart Hoya) and at the same time, learn how to nurture and sustain your growing leaf into a fuss-free garden or house plant that will keep you and your other half company in your continued journey of love.

Grow Your Own Sweetheart

Date: 14 Feb, Sat

Time: 3 pm - 4.30 pm

Venue: HortPark, Fruit Room

Speaker: Mr Wilson Wong

Note:

Registration is required. Admission is free.

For enquiries or registration, please email NParks\_HortPark@nparks.gov.sg or call 6471 5601.

About Speaker

Mr Wilson Wong is the Founder and Administrator of Green Culture Singapore. He is both an apartment and outdoor gardener and his gardening interests encompass indoor plants, vegetables and herbs, carnivorous plants and tropical plants such as Heliconia and gingers. He is also the Founder and Leader of the new community garden in Serangoon North Ave 2. Wilson is also a regular contributor of gardening articles to AsiaOne.com, NPark's garden blog - Garden Voices, the Home Concepts magazine and the Root Awakening in Straits Times' Life! section.

How to get to HortPark?

Address: 33 Hyderabad Rd (Off Alexandra Rd)

Nearest MRT Station: HarbourFront, Tiong Bahru MRT Station

Nearest Bus Interchange: HarbourFront

Buses: 51, 61, 93, 97, 100, 166, 963 (Alexandra Rd)

10, 30, 51, 143, 175, 176, 188 (Pasir Panjang Rd)

Brought to you by:

